ASTROLOGICAL PROFILE FOR JEAMS SUSE

*Tropical Zodiac

TEMPERAMENT & GENERAL CHARACTER

*Cancer Ascendant

Being of a sensitive nature you are able to assess the feeling content of events and situations in the outside world. This is often convenient for avoiding trouble, but can be put to good use in teaching situations. Although your sensitivity needs some protection you should guard against shutting yourself off from helpful influences. The Cancer Ascendant endows you with a sympathetic, idealistic and sensitive nature capable of much emotional warmth. There is a need for domesticity and a happily family life where your nurturing quality can find expression. Emotional experiences are all important and on occasion they may dominate your life for better or for worse. You are easily influenced by those whom you love or admire, but are apt to be cold, reserved, and distrustful to those you do not know well or whom you dislike. You have an active imagination and fancy, and often live the past over again in your mind and anticipate the future. You live a good deal in the senses, and at times are changeful and capricious, but you also have patience and perseverance. A shy, sensitive and timid nature makes you vulnerable to emotional pain. Other dangers are moodiness, fantasising, restlessness and a predisposition to hypochondria. Qualities lacking to some degree, which may be found in your partner are perseverance, ambition and the capacity for sustained hard work.

PERSONALITY AND CREATIVE SELF-EXPRESSION

*Sun In Taurus

Your basic impulse is to establish a sense of security. This is likely to be of a material nature as abstract wealth is of little use. Security is what you can trust and what doesn't change. Boundaries are set up to ensure stability. Harmony and balance are sought amid the chaos of life. The Dark Side; unfortunately, the material world is anything but stable and people are anything but orderly. Setting up boundaries can make it difficult to see out and your enclosure, be it mental or physical, is likely to become a self-imposed prison that restricts not only your own growth, but that of friends and family too. With a Taurus Sun, you are determined, practical, reliable and patient in all circumstances. You have a steadiness of character which could serve you well in business matters. A strong desire for material possessions is a dominant motivating factor in your life. You are emotional, sensitive, trustworthy and loyal. There is a reluctance to take risks in any circumstances. On the negative side, your love of ease can make you self-indulgent and lazy at times. A too-conservative manner can get you stuck in a rut, and make your life dull and routine. On your off-days you can be mean, argumentative and critical. To develop your personality to its full potential, the main task is one of achieving personal integrity. Every effort should be made to rule out signs of laxity in morals, excessive eating or drinking, and obstinacy. Likely occupations are those associated with agriculture, businesses connected with clothing, confectionery, or jewellery, or artist professions, notably acting.

*Sun In The Eleventh House

There is nothing you love better than being with groups or societies that share your ideals and values. Through them you seem to achieve emancipation of your self. With the Sun's energy in the Eleventh House your personality drive will express itself mainly through friendships and group activities - perhaps in social or cultural reform, or as a manager of a social institution. You are advised to develop a cultured and refined personality.

*Sun Inconjunct Mars Orb 4.4° Separating - Weak Aspect: Effective Intensity 23%

Actions speak louder than words with you and even in trying circumstances you have the ability to successfully apply this energy. You have an energy and enthusiasm for life which can be expressed by action, no matter how demanding that may be. This Sun - Mars aspect indicates a vital, courageous, active, ambitious, decisive and energetic personality - with a great capacity for leadership. Very competitive, you are likely to be good at sports or other physical activities, able to function at high energy levels for prolonged periods of time. You especially enjoy challenges that test physical strength and stamina to the limit. You have the ability to perform even the most difficult of tasks in an enthusiastic and constructive way. Your sense of honour, integrity and fair play ensures social popularity and success.

*Sun Conjunct Uranus Orb 0.9° Applying - Powerful Aspect: Effective Intensity 100%

You value freedom more than anything in life. Rules, regulations and structures are apt to be disregarded if they don't suit you and new ones put in their place, until the next change of mind. Sun conjunct Uranus ensures new exciting experiences in life. This configuration may give genius-potential that drives your personality to experiment with new realms of undiscovered potential - possibly engaged in projects which are regarded as unusual, futuristic or strange. Metaphysical concepts will attract your interest in order that you gain a more advanced understanding of the forces that shape nature and the world. Revolutionary tendencies and a strong character are blended with very original, intuitive and independent qualities. In pursuing your potential or initiating reforms, expect to experience much opposition. Overwork and a strained or tense inner life will give problems with the nerves, this must be recognised and guarded against. You can be unpredictable, inconsistent, idealistic, highly intuitive and maddening to live with. Much of your life may be dedicated to achieving ideals which are thought to be for the benefit to society at large. However the many restrictions and red tape of daily life can give rise to much inner tension. The restrictions are likely to be discarded rather dramatically at times!

*Sun Trine Neptune Orb 7.8° Applying - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 53%

You are likely to have artistic creativity, compassion for others and refined inspirational attitudes to life, but may find it difficult to put these excellent qualities into action. An inner sense of well-being and contentment can make it difficult to see the point of doing anything and, even when life is trying you may find prefer to do nothing. This would be a pity, a waste of good potential. Sun - Neptune mellows the personality and gives you an idealistic, receptive, imaginative, tolerant, cultured, charming, intuitive and temperamental nature - very sensitive to people and atmosphere. This influence inclines to spiritual growth and throughout life you experience states of consciousness that you have great difficulty in adequately describing to others. On occasion, the real paradoxes of life dominate your consciousness demanding the expression of truth - hence an interest in mysticism and the soul is likely. Generally, you will be lucky and have a fortunate life - socially popular and much liked by other people. You display a quality of universal love that can transcend the personal, sexual, and physical outlets for this emotion. You should, however, beware lest the sensuous side of life dominates. On the more practical level your intuitive capacity and ability for seeing below the surface of things can be used for financial benefit: as an example, insight into business and stock market investments.

Sun Sextile Asc Orb 0.0° - Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 79%

Other people are important to you, whether they belong to close family or those you meet as friends in societies or clubs that have similar interests. Communicating with others - either receiving or giving - helps to bring to life an important part of your personality thereby giving you a better understanding of your main goals in life. The Sun - Ascendant contact suggests a well-integrated and harmonious personality free from inner conflicts. You strive for public recognition and desire to gain esteem and importance within your personal environment. Your ambitious, positive, charming, affable, self-confident and magnanimous nature brings fortunate contacts, social recognition and much success - marriage and other partnerships will also thrive.

Sun Sextile M.C. Orb 3.5° - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 50%

Other people are likely to be important to you in achieving your goals and ambitions. This may be through a commitment to some cause or other, or through some ideal you follow, but the rapport that you set up with others will determine the success of such ventures. The Sun - Midheaven influence indicates that your professional work will be enjoyable and you will attain your ambitions and earn success. You strive to develop all aspect of your personality in order to gain self-knowledge and an awareness of your true mission in life. Your positive attitude to events and your practical, strongly idealistic and self-confident manner will bring you public prominence and acclaim. Help is often granted from those in power.

FEELINGS AND THE ABILITY TO RESPOND TO EVERYDAY AFFAIRS

Note also any aspects of Moon previously listed

Moon In Sagittarius

Your spontaneous response to any situation is to be philosophical and cheerful about it. Attempting to see things from an overall point of view you will see how they fit in with your "conceptual landscapes" and add to your store of experiences. Your ideal home is likely to be full of life and activity The Moon in Sagittarius gives an idealistic, cheerful and optimistic overtone to your emotional disposition - candid, honourable, kindly and good-natured. You can become restless and nervous on occasion, and on impulse can 'up sticks' and move home without warning - possibly to foreign shores. You may intuitively be drawn to such subjects as religion, mysticism or social science. You are, by temperament, a natural teacher or preacher and at times you can be very prophetic. Philosophy, music and reading will have a soothing and therapeutic effect upon your nature.

Moon In The Sixth House

Basically you are an opportunist seeking to adapt to given conditions and circumstances so that you may work efficiently. There is a chance you may not have the flexibility to adapt. Work may then become a depressing burden as it seems to inhibit self-expression. With the Moon in the Sixth House your feeling, instinctive nature will find expression in work or service to the family or local community. Your day-to-day response to circumstance is strongly conditioned by health issues and your general emotional well-being. You have a very sensitive nature and are easily hurt, therefore, care is required in this area because strong negative emotions will have a detrimental effect upon your health and general ability to cope with the demands of daily living. You will feel a sense of security by emotionally identifying with your work or career.

Moon Trine Venus Orb 2.7° Applying - Very Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 84%

Your emotions and feelings work harmoniously together and your sympathy and consideration of others bring many friends into your life. You have good taste and an appreciation of the good things of life, and will attempt to surround yourself accordingly. The Moon-Venus contact promises you a fortunate journey through life with many opportunities for success. You are refined and artistic, possess good taste, and a keen appreciation of all that is good and beautiful. There is liking for music and all things artistic, light literature, drama, public functions and other forms of wholesome pleasure and amusement. Your emotionally relaxed, refined, cultured and elegant manner will attract those who will bring happiness and social success into your life. You will never be short of friends or partners of the opposite sex, nor will you ever suffer poverty.

Moon Square Neptune Orb 2.2° Separating - Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 63%

Essentially an idealist, the discord between what you feel life should be like and what it is like leaves something to be desired. This inner discord may incline you to escape into a world of daydreams and unrealistic escape plans. You really need to be painfully honest with yourself about your own desires and needs. Instead of looking outward for the ideal, take definite steps to re-define your own self-image. The work required in coming to terms with yourself in this way should enable you to give compassion and love where it is really needed. Emotional difficulties that need to be objectified and overcome may be experienced through super-sensitivity, a lack of realism, sentimental day-dreaming, escapism and a general lack of will-power to deal with reality. This aspect may cause, at times, psychic depression difficult to describe. However the opportunity is afforded to enter and understand the inner emotional realm where mystical experiences are possible.

Moon Conjunct N.Node Orb 3.1° - Very Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 84%

You relate to other groups of people in a deep emotional way. This may be through having sympathy with their objectives, or a feeling that you can contribute something worthwhile to help them achieve their aims. Whatever it is you will also benefit just as much as the people you help. Your Moon conjunct North Node brings a degree of good fortune and popularity due to an instinctive awareness of prevailing events. Don't be surprised if your affiliations change as this is all part of broadening the base from which you work.

Moon Sextile Fortuna Orb 0.0° - Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 79%

This aspect implies that your hopes and wishes are realised, in part, through your feelings and emotions - perhaps in family, romantic and domestic situations.

THE MIND AND MENTAL ABILITIES

Note also any aspects of Mercury previously listed

*Mercury In Taurus

Your approach to the world and your environment is to assess them in relation to their practical value. You 'weigh' the value of a thing against what you know and appreciate and only then will you react; usually defensively to protect things that are meaningful to you. Mercury in Taurus gives a steady, realistic and patient mind with good powers of concentration and plenty of common sense. Your diligence, perseverance, determination and endurance of mind enables you to acquire knowledge and a sound education. Religion, art, music or poetry could help to stimulate your mental abilities. This placement of Mercury usually gives a sociable, friendly, and affectionate disposition, although, occasionally, you can be stubborn and irritable when others do not agree with your point of view. On the whole, you will be inclined to use your mental qualities to secure practical, material or financial results.

*Mercury In The Eleventh House

You like groups and meetings where lively discussions take place. In this way you can enhance life for society in general. Not one but many interests are likely to take your attention and the problem may well be to focus these energies in a practical way. Your mental and communicative abilities will largely be applied to the pursuit of truth and profound knowledge. Mainly through the mental companionship of friends, or within social groups in a teach and learn situation. This position of Mercury strengthens the intellect, gives a good memory and a strong comprehensive mind capable of much hard work. Intuitive insights and original reasoning ability produce the occasional touch of genius - you often comprehend issues that others find quite incomprehensible. Your objective and original thinking can be used for the scientific investigation of advanced metaphysical concepts and humanitarian ideals - or other profound issues that could lead humanity towards a better future.

*Mercury Trine Jupiter Orb 2.5° Applying - Very Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 86%

Your cheery conversation and attitude to life makes you welcome at anybody's fireside; even when fate seems to deal you cruel blows you prefer to see the best of the situation. Yours is a philosophical approach to life enabling you to see life in its broadest aspects. This is one of the best aspects in regard to the mind that can occur in any horoscope. General good fortune and success in life is promised - due mainly to a positive, evolved, cultured and kindly mental disposition. You are endowed with a balanced mentality with a sound sense of humour and much common sense. You have excellent judgement and possess a broad mind - one that is philosophical, intuitive and harmonious. Moreover, you have the ability to think clearly, deeply and seriously. The mind may be further expanded through travel, religion and higher education. There is often good judgement and a keen sense of timing. But there are times when you may find it difficult to apply yourself to the issues of daily living. However, it is only through living life in the raw that will enable you to gain the real learning and understanding that you seek.

*Mercury Sextile Pluto Orb 2.1° Applying - Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 70%

Mentally you love to plumb the depths of life to determine the motivating forces behind creation, or perhaps create mysteries out of ordinary everyday events. Either activity has as its source the need to search for meaning behind outward activity. Over-sensitivity can lead to a somewhat defensive stance regarding your own beliefs and opinions. This is due to too close an identification with what you believe in. Any resulting confrontations are actually an opportunity for you to understand your own motivations and rid yourself of unproductive ideas and activities. This Mercury-Pluto influence adds flexibility and emotional power to your mental disposition. It usually conditions the mind to make changes without undue distress, and to throw off restrictions easily. You have the ability to size up a new situation and change your tactics accordingly. A strong analytical mind enables you to penetrate through the obvious and search out the cause of things - seeing connections between externally unrelated objects, ideas, and feelings. With your strong, dominating personality you are able to persuade, control and even dominate others mentally. Others will never be able to convince you of the truth of their opinions or change the way you think, but you may well adopt their ideas as your own and end up carrying their banner for them. Your way of putting things seems to carry more weight than most!

*Mercury Semi-Square Asc Orb 0.7° - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 42%

Your own opinions and ideas are often expressed in a manner that is at odds with how you feel. Sometimes they just come out the wrong way, but with trial and error you'll gain an inner understanding of how best to represent yourself. Adverse mental attitudes that need to be objectified and overcome may relate to a worrying nature that puts heavy strain on the nerves. Poor judgement and a lack of direction might be another problem. However there is the opportunity to develop a keen, penetrating, witty mind coupled with a fun-loving temperament.

*Mercury Square Fortuna Orb 5.6° - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 54%

Adverse mental attitudes that need to be objectified and overcome may relate to one's happiness thwarted by an inhibition to communicate effectively, thus causing mental problems.

SOCIAL, ROMANTIC AND ARTISTIC ABILITIES

Note also any aspects of Venus previously listed

*Venus In Aries

Ardent and enthusiastic in life and love, nobody would ever dare call you apathetic. What you want you tend to take and then wonder why there is a trail of hurt feelings left behind. You are not backward in coming forward, and if you like someone you're more than likely to tell them, even if they happen to be your best friend's lover! Venus in Aries indicates an impulsive, passionate, extrovert and bold romantic nature. There is a need for constant variety in both your romantic and social lives. You make friends easily and are fond of love and admiration. You make an enthusiastic, lively friend and an energetic colleague. Very easily influenced by the attraction of the opposite sex, your refined appearance slips on occasion to reveal a very sensuous nature. An early marriage is probable. You can be a bit of a show-off, enjoy fine clothes, ornaments and all forms of luxury, and you are inclined at times to extravagance, having an 'easy come - easy go' attitude towards money. Avoid coarseness and childish tantrums. You evaluate life through taking action within it. This provides inner balance.

*Venus In The Eleventh House

You love more than anything to be with like-minded friends and associates so that you can pursue common interests, often for the benefit of society. With Venus in the Eleventh House the areas of life where you are most likely to express your social, romantic and artistic qualities are through forming harmonious, warm social friendships - probably related to group activities within a club, society or fraternity. You may meet your marriage partner through such group activities, consequently your interests will be shared. Romance could well blossom through the group activities.

*Venus Square Jupiter Orb 5.4° Separating - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 43%

You have a broad expansive set of values giving rise to an inclination to over-indulge in everything. Understanding that life is not all "take" but more "give" can come as a wonderful surprise. It can be the harbinger of more good things! You may find relationships frustrating or difficult to maintain. Disputes can arise for various reasons, but most often because of lack of understanding as to what you and your partner really want. This may be doubly difficult if what you want is not what you really need. You need to respect the rights of individuals. However, the resulting conflicts can produce growth and development as they force you to look at aspects of your personality that are childish and immature. Possible problems with your affections and ability for harmonious relationships may come through having a too-easy-going, lazy, playboy/girl attitude to life. A love of luxury and over-indulgence may adversely affect your health. With a need for many lovers fidelity may not be a strong point. Although a little vain, a warm-hearted, cheerful and friendly disposition brings you many friends. Later in life you will come to realise that you are essentially seeking profound values rather than superficial enjoyment.

*Venus Square Pluto Orb 5.1° Separating - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 45%

Love can involve intense physical, emotional and mental affairs. Unfortunately your partner may not feel similarly inclined, needing more freedom and space than you prepared to give. You need to avoid possessiveness and jealousy. A tempestuous love-life is indicated - or the sexual emotions are inhibited by psychological difficulties. You are passionately intense and very acquisitive, and will actively seek wealth and social distinction. Social and romantic problems could occur through your attraction to unsavoury types. Disputes may arise for many different reasons but the most common is money. However, this is more likely to be the symptom than the cause. The impression may be that others are taking advantage of you (which may be correct) but it is more than possible that you were the source of the problems in the first place.

*Venus Trine N.Node Orb 5.9° - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 52%

You are easily able to find an outlet for the expression of your artistic sensibilities through groups of like-minded friends. A Venus - North Node influence brings general good fortune in your social and domestic affairs - it suggests artistic friends and many happy romantic encounters.

*Venus Semi-Square M.C. Orb 1.3° - Weak Aspect: Effective Intensity 25%

Your easy-going nature may not go down well in your professional life. Conflicts are therefore possible between personal and career interests and you need to decide which is most important. Possible problems with your affections and ability for harmonious relationships may come through shyness and an inhibition in the outward expression of emotion. This may be a drawback to a successful career and unfavourable for harmonious social and domestic relationships.

*Venus Sextile Fortuna Orb 2.6° - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 57%

This is a very fortunate influence and indicates luck and general good fortune in life. Much happiness will come from social and romantic affairs, artistic pursuits and wholesome amusements.

CAPACITY FOR ACTION AND PERSONAL DESIRES

Note also any aspects of Mars previously listed

*Mars In Sagittarius

You need to be physically active, not just for the joy of pure motion but to travel further and wider than before seeking new horizons to conquer. Travel broadens the mind as well as developing the body. Your spontaneous actions are carried out within a wide frame of reference and you may find the little details of everyday existence rather tiresome. These little details are, however, the foundations upon which your actions must be based, so do try to sort them out first. Mars in Sagittarius indicates that you will assert yourself in a frank, spontaneous, optimistic, idealistic, lively, sociable, courteous, and versatile manner: as a crusading spirit, breadth of vision and strong religious or philosophical convictions are likely. Much of your energy will be channelled into furthering idealist causes, mental work, travel, adventurous projects, sport and other outdoor pursuits. There is some tendency to risk-taking and gambling. On occasion, you can be self-righteous, fanatical, quarrelsome and lack diplomacy - restlessness is another danger. Much of your sexual energy is dissipated in sports and intellectual activities, however, you do have your moments of high passion. Lovemaking is of a conventional and idealist nature.

*Mars In The Sixth House

Your energies may find release through working in a 'service' industry. It may appear mundane work but useful activity such as this can give you as much satisfaction as working for yourself. There is a basic need to adapt your energies to the needs of the society in which you live. With Mars in the Sixth House you are likely to exert your energy and initiative through hard, energetic physical work or by representing other workers in a fight for improved conditions within the work environment. Your will to action is applied in 'putting your own house into order', health and work matters generally.

*Mars Trine Saturn Orb 3.7° Applying - Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 78%

Your activities are always tinged with caution, a certain gentle planning before initiating anything. If it's going to be long hard slog then you're the person for the job. Others may criticise you for your slowness but, with the inner confidence you have in yourself and your actions, you know the result you're aiming for is achievable. Success is the result of hard work and getting the certificates to prove it. A Mars-Saturn contact suggests that you are the type of person who likes a physical challenge: harsh conditions, requiring endurance and discipline are welcomed - mountaineering, tough sports, exploring, etc. This aspect bestows organising ability, qualities of leadership, persistence, a pioneering spirit, powers of resistance, a sound survival instinct, toughness, stamina and a love of hard, demanding physical tasks. Professional goals are achieved through sheer hard work.

Mars Trine Pluto Orb 7.6° Applying - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 54%

In many ways you are in "bondage" to activities. These activities can be on yourself (personal transformation), your house, your career, hobbies, ideologies or in fact on anything that you choose to be active in. It is an obsessive compulsion to work without any break until the project is complete or a personal breakdown occurs. Other people, especially your partner, have to take second place as you pursue your chosen objective to the end. Alternatively you may find it difficult to get going on anything new (or even anything old once stopped) and the pressure builds up as in a volcano until it is released in a mighty explosion of activity. A Mars-Pluto contact vastly increases your physical energy and emotional reserve. Moreover, you are given the ability to easily discard all that hinders your progress in life, and makes any necessary changes with ease. Your great ambition, self-confidence and energy could lead to extraordinary achievements and success through indefatigable effort. There is an ability to initiate action which results in long-term changes. Take care that these changes are what you really need.

Mars Inconjunct Asc Orb 4.4° - Weak Aspect: Effective Intensity 30%

Your activities seem intent on continually tripping you up. No matter what you do it is never the right thing. Conflicts occur between home, professional activities and your own personal needs. There must be a balance somewhere but finding it is rather difficult. Problems of behaviour that must be recognised and overcome may manifest through an impulsive, aggressive way of projecting yourself to others. There is a tendency to bully in order to have your own way. You could become very unpopular if this trait is not dealt with.

Mars Square M.C. Orb 0.8° - Very Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 84%

Personal sacrifices are made for the sake of your career or your standing in the community. In fact much of the effort you put into things is not recognised, but the very fact that you can do it is all that you need to feel a sense of contentment. Problems of behaviour that must be recognised and overcome may come through an inability to get along with the authorities, superiors and employers. This could cause you endless strife both at work and in your home life. You must curb an inclination to challenge everyone and anything without restraint - learn how to use your brain before brawn.

Note also any aspects of Jupiter previously listed

Jupiter In Capricorn

The desire to expand your understanding of the world is undertaken in ways which aspire to greater things. This may be in career and other matters where your standing in the community is important to you. Jupiter in Capricorn gives you the opportunity to develop a strong sense of duty, integrity, honesty, mature judgement, sound business ethics and a suitability for executive positions. There is an innate drive for dignity, importance, power and status. These qualities are necessary to enable you to expand your personality and life experience. Eventually, through hard work, determination and accomplishment you are likely to achieve a high position of commercial, industrial or political responsibility. The achievement of wealth is a high probability.

Jupiter In The Eighth House

Your ability to expand your experience of life is best met in dealings with others' possessions, belongings and deep feelings. This can be through banking, accounting, legal obligations or perhaps through counselling situations. Interest in the meaning of life and death are also usually manifest. With Jupiter in the Eighth House you will find luck, ease of working and general good fortune coming through an inheritance, joint finances, investment, business dealings or your marriage partner. This position of Jupiter gives you the opportunity to develop skill in business, a flair for handling money and a marked degree of social power.

Jupiter Sextile Saturn Orb 3.5° Separating - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 41%

You are prepared to put up with much hard work and effort to achieve long-term goals and ambitions. Personal sacrifices have to be made but the end result will be well worth the effort. You realise that the best growth comes from good planning and takes sustained effort over a considerable time. This is something you are more than willing to do. This Jupiter-Saturn configuration gives you marked executive ability and a sound business sense. You are able to delegate, make decisions and implement large-scale plans with ease. Your very strong character, common sense, benevolence, honesty and practical ability wins the confidence of others. As life advances, social prestige, happiness and prosperity will be achieved.

Jupiter Opposition Pluto Orb 0.3° Separating - Strong Aspect: Effective Intensity 75%

Your life is likely to go through periodic phases of renewal and regeneration. These are brought about through confrontations with other people. You have an inner faith in your own abilities in whatever sphere of life you are likely to face. This will take you through most hurdles and leaves you fresh for further challenges. With this aspect there is the tendency to bully, coerce and exploit others. Wastefulness is another danger - nor are you likely to respect the resources and property of others. Fanatical aims may cause you to take dangerous risks for great gains, but such could result in losses, financial disasters, falls from power or conflict with the authorities. A less rebellious, more tolerant attitude needed.

*Saturn In Aries

You are defensive about projecting yourself into life's arena. It appears to be a dangerous place or an inhibitingly aggressive environment. Effort is required to express yourself in a positive, non-destructive manner. Work and study are required to improve your own image of yourself and what you can and cannot do. The knowledge gained will be an invaluable foundation from which to challenge the world. In order to succeed in your social position in the world you will have to gain knowledge and expertise associated with self-sufficiency, self-assertion and self-reliance. Life experience will force you to learn valuable lessons related to strength of character, the correct use of will-power, resourcefulness, social confrontation and personal initiative. You must learn to carve out a piece of life for yourself and take care of your own needs without relying too much on others. A strong ego must be evolved and an agreeable social persona adopted. These qualities will enable you overcome feelings of fear and self-doubt, and to face the challenges of the outer world with courage and self-confidence: a free soul with a true sense of worth and purpose.

*Saturn In The Tenth House

You are liable to be defensive about your standing in society and to want to improve it at all costs. No matter what you do it always seems to go on the rocks in unexpected ways. There is a need to slowly and patiently develop an inner sense of your own worth. This will protect you from both praise and criticism from the community at large. A Tenth House Saturn suggests that your career or area of responsibility in the world relates in some way to the attainment of public power and status through positions of authority and professionalism. You may have had a lack of opportunities in your youth and met with obstacles, delay, dull periods and disappointment. However, with your ambition for power and advancement, and through steady, persevering industry, you will rise above your sphere in life - possibly in your middle years. You will have to gain knowledge and expertise associated with worldly power, status, achievement, practical accomplishment and the ability to deal effectively with authority. Your deep need for financial security and self-sufficiency will provide the necessary impetus for success.

*Saturn Trine Pluto Orb 3.8° Separating - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 53%

This Saturn-Pluto influence endows you with self-reliance, determination, high ideals, great self-discipline and determination. Periods of life may require difficult undertakings, hard struggles, great sacrifices and some work done in seclusion. Possessing qualities of tenacity and toughness you have the ability to perform the most difficult work with extreme self-discipline, self-denial and renunciation. However, this could bring record achievements. At times you can display a severe attitude and may prefer your own company to that of others. An interest in the occult is likely to provide a needed spiritual discipline - magicians and adepts often have this aspect. You have a desire for reform and are relentless in the pursuit of your goals.

*Neptune In Virgo

You go after your ideals in a particular manner. Neptune is a very slow moving planet that remains in a zodiac sign for many months and the many millions born during this period share this same influence. Therefore, this placing is regarded, mainly, as having a generational effect upon your destiny. At the 'personality' level, it has little to no effect.

*Pluto In Cancer

Therefore, this placing is regarded, mainly, as having a generational effect upon your destiny. At the 'personality' level, it has little to no effect.

*Pluto In The Second House

You need to change your attitude to values and possessions. You tend to be rather obsessive about them - to your detriment. The desire for security is great and the urge to acquire material possessions gives just that - material security. This, however, is not the real inner security that you actually need. There is a need to share your abilities and talents so that all of society can benefit. Pluto in the Second House brings opportunities for transforming yourself through the use of material resources and financial power. Fields for successful financial enterprises include any industry which recycles waste or converts non-useable items into useable ones; industry which affects chemical change on raw materials; fields involved in combating pollution; sanitation, hygiene, garbage collection; all occupations dealing with death - funeral director, mortician, undertaker, etc.; occupations involved in manufacturing organic fertilisers, and compost; all professions delving into psychological motives; detective work of all kinds, including medical research and geological exploration. Beware of associating with gangster types, or becoming involved in any form of criminal activity. Greed, materialistic motives, gambling and underhand speculations are other dangers - these can bring sudden wealth but unexpected losses always follow. Self-indulgence in physical pleasures can adversely affect the health.

*Pluto Semi-Quintile Chiron Orb 0.2° - Medium Strength Aspect: Effective Intensity 53%

With this aspect your actions and opinions will be radical so it will be good for you to step back and look at things from another angle before plunging ahead.
